1. The National Militia School for the Republic of Montenegro is located in Kotor. The school is permanent and maintains two courses, one of which is for Militia-officers, lasting from three to four months, and the other for non-commissioned Militia personnel, lasting from six to eight months.
2. The Military Textile Enterprise is located in Perast. It supplies material, clothing, linen and a variety of sanitary equipment exclusively to the Yugoslav Navy. The enterprise employs approximately two hundred fifty workers, the majority of whom are women.
3. Two large fuel tanks which were damaged by the Germans during the war are located in Lipci. Repairs to the tanks were begun in August 1950.
4. The Torpedo School for officers and non-commissioned officers, located in Djenovic, has courses which last six months. There are approximately one hundred to one hundred fifty students in each course. Training in launching of torpedoes is done on a platform in front of barracks located on the shore facing Tivat Bay.
5. The mine warfare school is located in Djenovic. The students go out for practical training on wooden vessels to check or reorganize the mined fields.
6. The seaplane base at Kumbor was reactivated in the summer of 1949. It has two hangars; one which contains planes, and the other which holds the workshop. The headquarters is located in a small group of buildings near the hangars. Nine seaplanes, allegedly of Yugoslav construction, which frequently fly at night, are stationed at the base.
7. The Yugoslav Naval Hospital is located in Meline.
8. The Yugoslav Naval Command for the South Adriatic is located in Tivat.
9. Bausic, which is allegedly the staff headquarters of the Marine Division, has two newly repaired barracks housing 700 to 800 marines.
